President, Pakistan Sports Board

Dear friends,

It is my honor to welcome the participants of BFAME Bridge Championship, where we will witness some of the brightest and most talented minds from different countries compete in various intellectual challenges. As Minister of Sports, I am proud to support events like this that showcase the incredible mental capabilities of athletes.

Sports and games are not just about physical strength and agility, but also about mental acuity, strategy, and creativity. Mind games such as bridge require intense concentration, logical reasoning, and quick decision-making skills. They not only provide entertainment and challenge for players and spectators alike but also help to promote mental fitness and well-being

I want to extend my appreciation to all of the organizers who brought this international event to Pakistan and are working tirelessly to make this event possible. Your efforts have helped to create a platform for the world's best minds to come together and compete in a friendly and competitive environment.

To all the participants, I want to wish the best of luck. Your intelligence, focus, and strategy will be put to the test, and I have no doubt that we will see some incredible performances. I hope that this event will inspire many more people to take up mind sports and games and develop their mental skills

Thank you, and let the games begin!

Message from
Mr. Muhammad Ibrar
Director General, Pakistan Sports Board

Hosting international event like BFAME Bridge Championship in Pakistan is a source of great happiness and pride. It will provide an opportunity for athletes and spectators from different countries to come together and celebrate the sport of bridge

I encourage you to enjoy this exciting event and to appreciate the skills and talents of these Incredible athletes. This event is not just about competition, but also about celebrating the human mind and its infinite potential.

Athletes from different countries and cultures will have the opportunity to interact and learn from each other, and spectators will have the chance to come together and share in the excitement and energy of the event. This can create a positive and welcoming environment that promotes unity and understanding

Passion of Pakistan Bridge Federation for sports and willingness to work tirelessly to make this event a success is truly inspiring I am grateful for dedication and unwavering commitment to excellence of organizers

Message from Jan Kamaras WBF President

Dear Participants, dear Friends,

I am pleased to welcome you on behalf of the WBF to the 22nd BFAME Championships in Lahore/Pakistan, which also serve as the Zonal Qualifier for the World Teams Championships in Marrakech later this year.

Organizing such an event is a mammoth task and our thanks go to all persons involved, under the leadership of the President of the host federation Mr. Mubasher Lucman. Not to be forgotten is the work involved in preparation for such an event at the Zonal level by BFAME President Bahjat Majali and his colleagues.

Representing one's country in any sport is a great honor. It also comes with responsibilities, and Bridge is no exception in this regard. I trust that you will make your country proud by displaying impeccable ethics, while at the same time competing to the best of your abilities. As you may know, I have made proper behavior at the bridge table one of the cornerstones of my presidency.

I wish you all an enjoyable championship and that you achieve your goals, whatever they may be. Everyone cannot win, but everyone can leave the championships with good memories of having played at the top level of our wonderful sport, maybe even making some new friends in the process.

Best regards

President Bridge Federation of Asia & Middle East

Besm Allah Al Rahman El Raheem

Dear Sisters, brothers, and friends, Al Salamu Alikum Warahmatullah wa Barakatu.

It gives me great pleasure to address a warm welcome to warm people that we have lot of common aspects gathering us, which gives me the feelings that I am not a stranger here, I am among my people and my family.

Once again, we meet for the twenty second Championship after forty-two years since the first Championship, today we meet while we are stronger, better organized, more independent, properly equipped, having the confidence of our capabilities, bridge in the Zone had picked up a great momentum, and above all thanking the Mighty God for blessing our mind sport and its activities.

We at the Asia and the Middle East Federation are so happy to meet you all here in Lahore, and would like to welcome you all and wish you to enjoy a happy residence in this great city. This is not the first time that Lahore hosts BFAME, some of us who are here now, enjoyed the participation in the BFAME Junior's' Championships in 2005, they had a good impression about the city and the hospitality of its people.

This is the third time that Pakistan hosts the BFAME Championships, let us not forget 1985 and 2007 in Karachi and commemorate the good work that was carried out in a galaxy and impressive style that all of us still proud of Lahore, a cosmopolitan city, second populous city in the beautiful country of Pakistan, and the 26th In the world. It is the capital of the province of Punjab, a major industrial city, a historical and cultural center that is rich with Heritage and archeological sites, enjoys a liberal social style. It is the heart of Pakistan, Paris of the East, the Gardens' city, and the city of literature as per UNESCO recognition. So we hope that all of you will enjoy some educational tours and a healthy socialization.

Let us remember all our friends who contributed a lot to this Federation as players, administrators, and organizers, and passed away to a better life, and let us pray to the mighty God to bless their souls and reside them in his spacious paradises.

I thank all those people who paid their best efforts, experience, knowledge, and capabilities to provide success and uniqueness to the waited 22nd. BFAME Championships. And on behalf of all my colleagues in the board and committees of the Federation, I thank all of you who suffered hardship efforts to be here.

At last but not least, my heartiest welcome to all of you, the best wishes and gratitude to the organizers, God help them to keep the work up. Personally, I am enthusiastically looking forward to follow on the first live BFAME Championship after the COVID 19 disasters.

Finally: "He who doesn't thank people, doesn't thank God", lot of gratitude to the Pakistani Federation headed by Mr. Mubashir Luqman and his team for a splendid job you all are going to live.

President PBF

It is my utmost pleasure to welcome you all to the 22nd BFAME (Lahore). We come together to celebrate the spirit of competition and sportsmanship, and to witness some of the finest players in the game display their skills and strategies.

Bridge is a game that requires intelligence, focus, and patience. It is a game that tests the limits of our mental capabilities and challenges us to think creatively and strategically. As we embark on this journey together, I urge each and every one of you to uphold the values of fairness, respect, and integrity that are at the heart of this game.

This tournament is a testament to the passion and dedication that you, the players, have for this game. It is a platform for you to showcase your talent and compete against some of the best in the world. Let us remember that the game of Bridge is not just about winning or losing, but about the friendships we form and the memories we create. So let us all play with grace and good sportsmanship, and let us appreciate the skill and talent of our fellow players.

I would like to express my gratitude to the organizers, volunteers, and sponsors who have worked tirelessly to make this tournament a reality. Their hard work and commitment have ensured that this event is a success, and I am deeply thankful for their contributions.

I would also extend my heartfelt gratitude to World Bridge Federation and Bridge Federation Asia & Mideast for holding this event in the beautiful city of Lahore. Finally, I wish all the players the very best of luck in this tournament. May you play to the best of your abilities, and may the best ones win. Let us enjoy this tournament and have a great time together.

Thank you, and good luck to all.

Message from
Ihsan Qadir Secretary BFAME

It is with great pleasure and honor that I extend a warm welcome to all of you on behalf of the Bridge Federation of Asia and Middle East (BFAME). As the Secretary of BFAME, I am delighted to host the 22nd championship of the BFAME in the beautiful city of Lahore, Pakistan.

The BFAME championships have a long-standing tradition of bringing together some of the best and most talented bridge players from across the Asian and Middle Eastern countries. It is a platform where players can showcase their skills and compete against the best in the region, while also fostering friendships and camaraderie among bridge enthusiasts.

The 22nd championship of the BFAME is set to be an exciting event, where players will have the opportunity to compete in a friendly and competitive environment. The event will be held from May 5th to May 13th, 2023 at the Pearl Continental Lahore, which is one of the most luxurious hotels in Pakistan.

The BFAME championship will feature four simultaneous events, namely the Open, Women, Seniors and the Mixed Team. This Championship is held biennially (in odd-numbered years) by teams from eligible BFAME member National Bridge Organizations. The winners and the runners up of the event will represent the Zone 4 BFAME representative in the 46th World Bridge Teams Championships.

Lahore, the cultural hub of Pakistan, is known for its rich history and vibrant culture. The city boasts an array of cultural and historical landmarks, including the magnificent Lahore Fort, the iconic Badshahi Mosque, and the famous Shalimar Gardens. During your stay in Lahore, we encourage you to explore the city and experience its rich culture and heritage.

We have arranged a comprehensive and exciting program for all the delegates. The program includes not only bridge events but also cultural and recreational activities that will allow you to explore the city and its surroundings. We are confident that the program will offer you a memorable experience that will be cherished for a long time.

We are grateful to all the participating teams, and we recognize the efforts made by all the National Bridge Organizations to send their teams to this championship. The championship would not be possible without their support and participation.

WELCOME TO LAHORE

A Trip Through Centuries...

Lahore, the city of gardens, history, and romance, is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Its rich cultural heritage, breathtaking architecture, and romantic ambiance make it a popular destination for lovers of history and architecture. Lahore is not only a historical city but also a city of romance, where love and beauty are celebrated in every corner. But Lahore is not just about historical monuments and architecture; it is also a city of culture and art. The city's vibrant bazaars, museums, and theaters offer a glimpse into the region's rich cultural heritage, and its music, dance, and food are renowned throughout the world. Couples can explore the city's narrow alleys and hidden courtyards, sample the delicious street food, or take in traditional music or theatrical performance. Lahore, the cultural and historical capital of Pakistan, is a city that exudes romance at every turn. With its rich history, architectural splendor, and warm hospitality of its people, Lahore has been a hub of art, literature, music, and romance for centuries.

The city has a long and fascinating history, dating back to the 11th century when it was founded by the Ghaznavid dynasty. Over the centuries, it has been ruled by various empires, including the Mughals, Sikhs, and British. Each of these periods has left an indelible mark on the city, and the result is a rich tapestry of cultures, religions, and traditions.

One of the most iconic landmarks of Lahore is the Lahore Fort, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that dates back to the Mughal era. The fort is a stunning example of Mughal architecture, with its intricate carvings, beautiful tilework, and elegant domes. It is said that the Mughal emperor Jahangir, who ruled from 1605 to 1627, fell in love with the fort and spent much of his time there with his beloved wife, Nur Jahan. Their romance has become the stuff of legend, and the fort remains a symbol of their enduring love.

Another must-see attraction in Lahore is the Badshahi Mosque, also built during the Mughal era. The mosque is one of the largest in the world, and its beautiful marble domes and minarets are an awe-inspiring sight. The mosque's courtyard is a popular spot for visitors to take a stroll, especially in the evenings when the mosque is lit romantic evening.

Apart from its monuments, Lahore is also famous for its food. The city's cuisine is a fusion of Mughal, Punjabi, and Central Asian influences and is renowned for its richness and flavor. Some of the must-try dishes include Lahori Fish, Haleem, Nihari, and the famous Lahori breakfast of Halwa Puri.

But perhaps the most romantic aspect of Lahore is its people. Lahore is known for its warm and hospitable people, who are always ready to welcome visitors with open arms. The city's markets and bazaars are a feast for the senses, up with beautiful lights.

Lahore is also home to many other beautiful monuments, such as the Shalimar Gardens, which were built by the Mughal emperor Shah Jahan in the 17th century. The gardens are a masterpiece of Mughal landscaping, with their terraced lawns, fountains, and pools. It is said that Shah Jahan built the gardens for his wife, Mumtaz Mahal, who died while giving birth to their 14th child. The gardens are a testament to their love and are a popular spot for couples to spend a with their vibrant colors, sounds, and smells. The people of Lahore are proud of their city's rich history and culture, and they are always eager to share it with visitors.

In conclusion, Lahore is a city that is steeped in romance and history. Its monuments, food, and people are a testament to the rich cultural heritage of the region. Whether you are strolling through the Lahore Fort, admiring the Badshahi Mosque, or indulging in the city's famous cuisine, you cannot help but feel the romance that is woven into every corner of this beautiful city. Lahore truly is a lover's paradise, and a visit to this city is sure to leave you with memories that will last a lifetime.

Lahore, the cultural capital of Pakistan, is famous for its vibrant food and shopping scenes. Here are some details about food and shops in Lahore:

Food:

Lahore is famous for its traditional cuisine, which is a blend of Punjabi, Mughlai, and other South Asian flavors. Some of the most popular dishes in Lahore include:

Lahori Fried Fish: This is a crispy fried fish dish that is a must-try when visiting Lahore. The fish is marinated in spices and then fried to perfection.

Nihari: This is a slow-cooked meat stew that is typically served for breakfast. The dish is made with beef, lamb, or chicken and is flavored with a mix of spices.

Haleem: This is a popular dish during Ramadan, but it is available year-round in Lahore. Haleem is a thick porridge-like dish made with wheat, lentils, and meat.

Chana Chaat: This is a spicy and tangy street food made with chickpeas, tamarind chutney, and spices.

Lassi: This is a traditional drink made with yogurt, milk, and sugar. It is a popular drink during the summer months.

Shops:

Lahore is a shopper's paradise, with a wide range of markets and shops offering everything from traditional handicrafts to modern designer clothing. Some of the most popular shopping destinations in Lahore include:

Anarkali Bazaar: This is one of the oldest and largest markets in Lahore. It is a great place to shop for clothes, jewelry, and traditional handicrafts.

Liberty Market: This is a popular shopping destination for modern fashion, including designer clothes, shoes, and accessories.

The Mall of Lahore: This is a modern shopping mall with a range of international and local brands.

Fortress Square: This is another popular shopping mall in Lahore with a range of shops, restaurants, and entertainment options.

Ichra Bazaar: This is a great place to shop for fabric and tailoring services. You can find a wide range of fabrics here, from traditional Pakistani prints to modern designs.

Lahore, the cultural capital of Pakistan, has a deep-rooted love for music and literature. It is a city that has produced some of the greatest poets, writers, and musicians in the region, and this love for the arts is still very much alive today. Music has always been an important part of Lahore's cultural heritage. The city has a rich history of classical music, and its traditional music is deeply intertwined with the local culture.
