

Kevin Wilson Bridge Presents:

MORE Fundamentals of Declarer Play

Add some fun to your day and bridge game with a series of bridge lessons from NABC champion and ABTA master teacher, Kevin Wilson. You will get access to four classes over consecutive weeks via Zoom and BBO and get a short write-up of examples afterwards. Video replays of the lessons will be available for you to review for one year after each lesson. Unlike other classes I have taught, some home study will be required to succeed. Home study handouts will be included in the course materials. This is a class in the fundamentals of card play and will include the examples from live play that I didn't have time to get to in the first class.

Monday June 10th from 9:00 AM EDT- 9:50 AM EDT (GMT-4)

MORE Tricks and the Value of Taking Tricks – This introductory class will include discussion of the importance of taking tricks. The nature of honors and promoting tricks through power will also be a focus. Many example hands from live games and a home-study challenge will be included.

Monday June 17th from 9:00 AM EDT- 9:50 AM EDT (GMT-4)

MORE Suit Combinations – Discussion topics include suit combinations and the importance of understanding and successfully negotiating various suit combinations. A home-study challenge will be included.

Monday June 24th from 9:00 AM EDT- 9:50 AM EDT (GMT-4)

MORE Finesses –Combining your chances and options at the table. The reason(s) you might not want to finesse will also be included. A home-study challenge will be included.

Monday July 1st from 9:00 AM EDT- 9:50 AM EDT (GMT-4)

MORE Taking Tricks with Trumps – Discussion will be about gaining tricks by using the trump suit. Controlling the enemy suit and getting extra tricks will be the focus here. MORE examples from live games.

One payment of $40 USD will get you access to all four lessons.
