

If you are looking for a partner, there is a facility called the "Partnership Desk" for each competition
This allows you to add yourself as available to play and/or to select a player to play with from the list of those that has already added their name to the available list.

The image consists of three overlapping screenshots from the Bridge Base Online website, illustrating the process of finding a partner for a tournament. The background features a pattern of playing cards.

Top Screenshot: Shows the "All Tournaments" page. A search bar contains "West" and a red arrow labeled "1" points to it. Below the search bar is a table of tournaments. Two rows are highlighted with a purple box, and a red arrow labeled "2" points to the first row's title: "WestDublin Red Nov to Inter A #".

Middle Screenshot: Shows the "Partnership Desk" for the selected tournament. A red arrow labeled "3" points to the "Partnership Desk (31)" tab. Below the desk information, there is a "Partner" section with an "Invite (3 BB$)" button and a checkbox for "I will pay for both myself and my partner".

Bottom Screenshot: Shows a list of potential partners. A red arrow labeled "4" points to the "Invite" buttons for each player. Below the list is an "Add your name" button. A red arrow labeled "4" also points to the "OR" text between the list and the "Add your name" button.
