

LEARN TO PLAY BRIDGE THIS SUMMER!

The Washington Bridge League Educational Foundation is sponsoring a series of bridge lessons this summer for new bridge players. The program is designed for people who have never played bridge before or who have played in the past and would like to return to the game now.

EXERCISE YOUR MIND!

Goal: By the end of the summer, you will be able to:

- Enjoy the best game ever invented
- Play social bridge with friends, and/or
- Play a friendly game of duplicate bridge with other new players

When: 10:30 AM – 12:30 PM, Saturdays June 22 – August 10 (no class on July 6).

Who: Lessons will be taught by Bob Schwab and Anne Derbes, experienced bridge teachers and tournament players.

Where: St. James Episcopal Church, 11815 Seven Locks Rd, Potomac, MD 20854.

Format: Classes will cover the basic rules of the game, the key elements of declarer play, defense, and the essentials of bidding. Each session will introduce a new topic followed by an opportunity to play and discuss hands. You do not need a partner to join the class.

Questions? Email Bob (schwab@umd.edu) or Anne (derbes@hood.edu).

To sign up: Email LearnBridgeMD@gmail.com. Space is limited – we encourage you to sign up early.

Cost of the program - $100. All proceeds will support the educational activities of the WBL Educational Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
